“FOLLOWING THE ROAD OF FIRE”: THE EMERGENCE OF TEILHARD DE
CHARDIN’S PANCHRISTIC MYSTICISM DURING THE FIRST WORLD WAR

DR. URSULA KING

April 28, 2015

7:00 pm

Gesù Chapel

Sixty years after the death of the great Jesuit paleontologist and theologian, Dr. Ursula King will present an examination of his roots, of his mysticism, and of his importance for contemporary issues of science and religion.

Ursula King, STL (Paris), MA (Delhi), PhD (London), FRSA, is Professor Emerita of Theology and Religious Studies and Senior Research Fellow at the Institute for Advanced Studies, University of Bristol. Educated in Germany, France, India and England, she has lectured all over the world and published numerous books and articles, especially on gender issues in religions, method and theory, modern Hinduism, interfaith dialogue, spirituality, and on the French thinker, Pierre Teilhard de Chardin. She is also the author of the soon-to-be published Spirit of Fire: The Life and Vision of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (revised edition).
