

Faith-Based Partnerships and Urban Transformation

Join
Jen McKillips,
Executive Director of Project Peace East Bay and Meg Bowerman,
Former Board Member of JustFaith East Bay

as they discuss what collaboration and education between churches looks like locally and how partnerships can transform our communities.

April 2, 2019, 6:45 p.m.
Manresa Lounge

Jen McKillips has over 20 years of experience as a community organizer and non-profit leader playing key roles in growing and managing organizations. Jen is an expert in mobilizing the faith community to serve and deeply engage in their communities, and is a thought leader on pressing issues facing the East Bay.

Meg Bowerman is a member of St. Columba's Catholic Church in Oakland, a volunteer coordinator for the Diocese of Oakland and a former board member for JustFaith, an adult formation program about putting Catholic Social Teaching into practice.

SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY JESUIT SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY IN BERKELEY