& Latinx Catholic Leadership Coalition

Pilgrimage, Teach-in and Action in the border community of El Paso, TX

Tuesday, September 17, 6:45 p.m.
Manresa Lounge, JST

Mauricio Najarro, Ph.D. candidate in Religion at the Graduate Theological Union, and Fr. Jon Pedigo, Director of Advocacy and Community Engagement at Catholic Charities of Santa Clara, will describe the “Jornada por la Justicia,” co-hosted by the Latinx Catholic Leadership Coalition and the Hope Border Institute, in response to the inhumane treatment of migrants at the U.S. border and the recent shooting that targeted Latinx people. This presentation is for all those who wish to learn more about these social justice issues in relation to faith and Catholic social teaching, as well as those who may wish to participate in or provide support to the pilgrimage.
