

CROSS-REGISTRATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN Graduate Theological Union and Dominican University of California
--

The following is the agreement between Dominican University of California (DU) and the Graduate Theological Union (GTU) as of December 2014 (going into effect beginning Fall 2015):

1. Graduate Theological Union students may take upper-division or graduate courses at Dominican University with the approval of the DU Division Chairperson (undergraduate courses) or Program Director (graduate courses) and the DU Registrar. All courses taken by Graduate Theological Union students on a cross-registration basis must also be approved by the Dean of their school of affiliation and the GTU Consortial Registrar.
2. Dominican University degree-seeking seniors and graduate students may take a course at the Graduate Theological Union with the approval of the GTU faculty member offering the course and the GTU Consortial Registrar. Dominican University students must also obtain the approval from their academic advisor and the DU transfer credit evaluator.
3. Students may cross-register for no more than one course (usually three semester units) in any academic term. Dominican University students may not cross-register in GTU courses that are also offered for credit at DU.
4. To cross-register, students should file the GTU/DU cross-registration form by the registration deadline at their host institution. Forms and instructions are available from the DU Registrar, the GTU Consortial Registrar and the Registrars of GTU schools of affiliation. Dominican students must also file an Authorization to Take Courses Off-Campus with the Dominican Registrar's Office.
5. Cross-registered students must follow the academic procedures and deadlines of the host institution.
6. Upon completion of the course, credit will be transferred between schools by transcript.
7. Tuition and fees are paid to the home institution only, not to the host institution.